Time from study recruitment (days)

Detailed description: This table shows the 'Number at risk' for each platelet group at five time points. The groups are defined by their initial platelet count: [0,225), [225,262), [262,306), and [306,838]. The numbers decrease over time, indicating events (flares) have occurred. The final column contains the number 7, 3, 6, and 8 respectively, which likely represent the number of events or censored observations at the end of the study period.
